

THE BOOTLEG SOCIETY – ST. AMANT’S WINE CLUB

Years ago, my dad wanted to create a wine club called the Bastardo Club after the eponymous grape variety that forms the foundation of our Tawny Port. He saw himself as the Big or Grand Bastard, and other members as little bastards. His title was fitting. Not literally, but in a figurative or metaphorical sense consistent with his humor, and the difficult nature of the Bastardo grape. It was mostly tasting room chit chat, and the club never came to be.

Over the years many of you have asked us to start a traditional wine club. I’m not really sure why we resisted, but ultimately we wanted to make sure we did it right. With that in mind, we’ve decided to launch the St.Amant Wine Club or Bootleg Society as it will be known. Instead of being a little bastard, club members get to join us as fellow “Bootleggers.” For those that may not know the story, our winery came to be in 1981, when a less than scrupulous winery filed bankruptcy on us shortly after harvest. We had sold them all our grapes. My father bootlegged the young wines out of their cellar and launched St.Amant Winery.

Our intent is to build upon that original adventuresome spirit, more closely connect our customers with our hand crafted wines and to extend that experience through memorable events, tastings, and all around fun.
